INDUSTRIAL LOFT

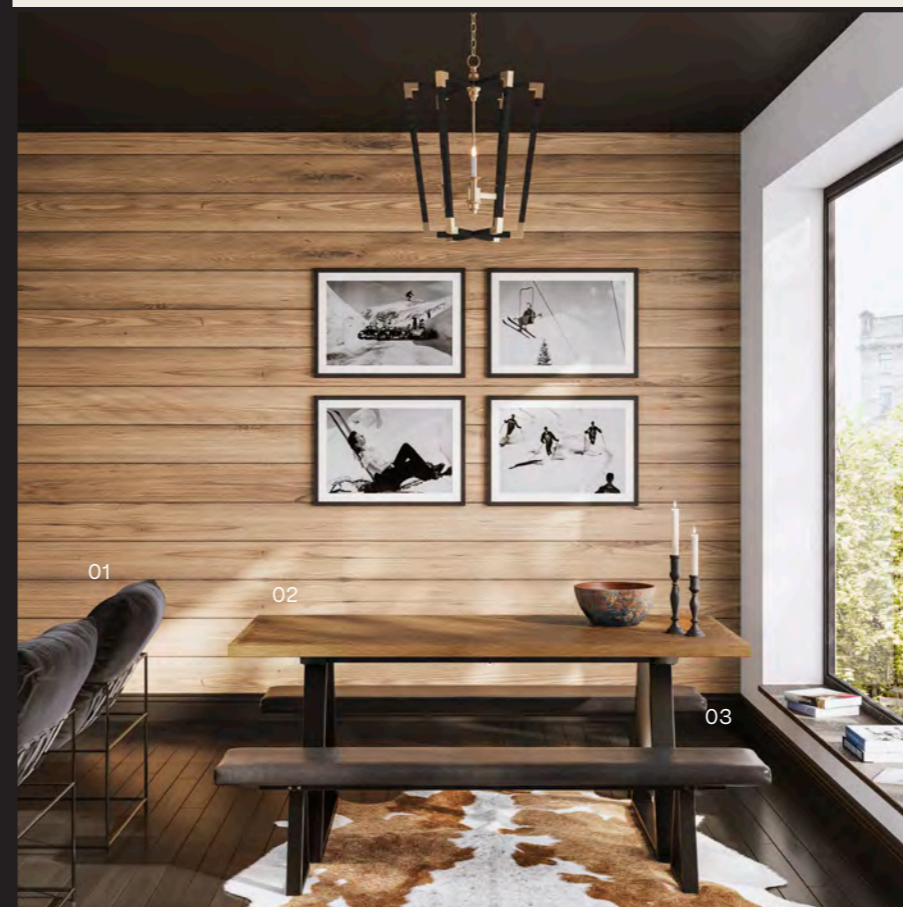

EMBRACE THE URBAN EDGE.

The industrial trend has become increasingly popular among homeowners and interior designers alike. With a focus on sleek, minimalistic interiors, the trend draws inspiration from the utilitarian features of factories, warehouses, and other industrial spaces.

The key to achieving the industrial look is celebrating the imperfections of a space and embracing raw materials, earthy tones, and pared-back designs.

Whether you want to transform your home into a New York style loft or just want to incorporate subtle touches into your space, our in-house design team has developed a collection guaranteed to achieve the industrial look in a home.

This thoughtfully assembled range of furniture has been designed for the modern urbanite seeking to infuse their living spaces with the character and robustness of the industrial aesthetic.

CURVE

ELEGANCE IN CURVES

It's a style that's both timeless and versatile, providing homeowners with a wide range of design options. Featuring key pieces such as beds, accent chairs and sofas, we're offering a unique blend of aesthetics and functionality.

Arched silhouettes, soft edges, and fluid shapes. A contrast to the angular lines that usually dominates interior design, curves are really having a moment.

Our collection features unique designs that add a playful element to any room, allowing smooth curves to create a relaxed flow and harmony in your space. The graceful curve of our products, designed by our in-house team are curated to not only align with the current trend but to also stand as pinnacles of enduring style.

MODERN COUNTRY

MC

TIMELESS CHARM

Moving away from the fussy florals and traditional furniture usually associated with country homes, the Modern Country trend is an elevated take on the classic country décor.

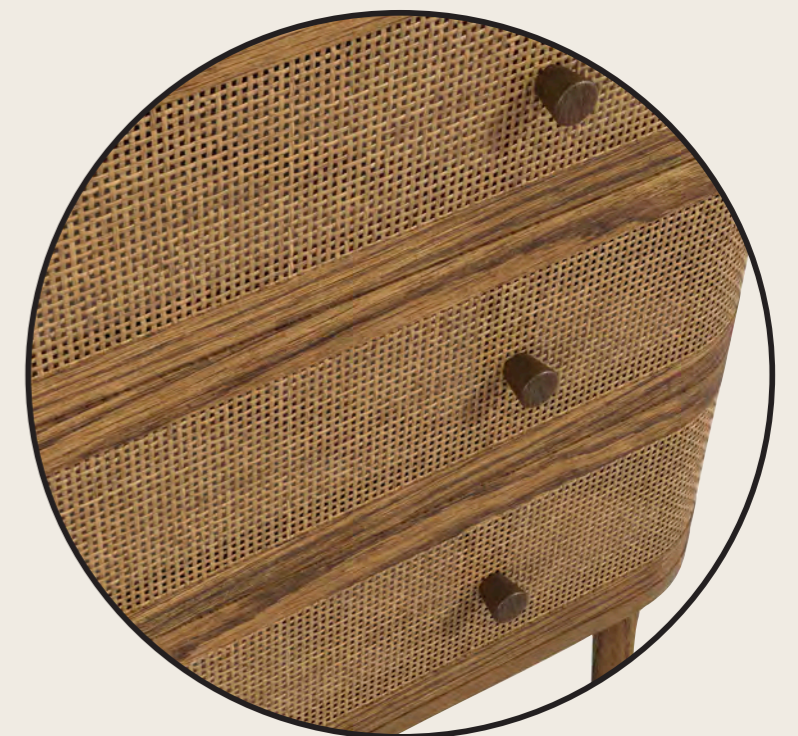

Inspired by rural living, 'modern country' combines traditional countryside charm with contemporary elements, to achieve a curated and sophisticated look with rustic appeal. Elevated by sleek silhouettes and a neutral colour palette, the trend embraces reclaimed finishes, natural textures, and subtle patterns to create a lived-in feel.

The refined, yet relaxed approach of this trend inspired the development of our new collection. Achieving the perfect balance between modern design and a rustic feel, our range features elegant textures and appealing shapes creating beds, accent chairs, dining tables and so much more.

Embrace the heartwarming allure of the countryside infused with a fresh, contemporary spirit in our all-new Modern Country Collection

ACCENT

Accent pieces are often smaller, eye-catching elements can truly transform a room, adding visual interest, functionality, and that extra touch of style. Our collection has something to complement your individual style and take your home decor to the next level.
